

Referred to Messrs. Sprigg, Maccubbin and Bowie.

On motion of Mr. Sprigg,

Ordered, That it be entered on the journal, that if Mr. Sprigg had been present on Saturday, when the vote was taken upon the resolutions of Mr. Graves, known as the instructing resolutions, he would have voted in the negative.

Mr. Owens asked and obtained leave to withdraw the petition of Joshua Rawlings and others, praying for the erection of a new school district in Anne Arundel county; and likewise the memorial of William Linthicum and others, having reference to the same subject; as also the petition of Thomas Pumphrey and others, counter to the petition of Rawlings, Linthicum and others.

On motion of Mr. Giles,

Ordered, That the Treasurer transmit to this House copies of the last annual statement of the Banks of the State, made in pursuance of law.

On motion of Mr. Coad,

Ordered, That the committee on internal improvements be instructed to inquire into the expediency of increasing the charges for toll and transportation on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road. It appearing from the last annual report of the President and Directors of said company that the present rate of charges, will not allow, of the transportation of certain articles on said road, except at great loss to said company.

Mr. Welch, of Annapolis, submitted the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, James Taylor, was so unfortunate as to lose a part of his right hand while acting as gunner, in firing the State salute on the fourth of July, 1837, under the direction of the Armorer, and whereas, he has been rendered unable to gain a livelihood for himself and family, by reason of said wound so received, while in service of the State—Therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the Western Shore of Maryland, pay out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, in quarterly payments, to James Taylor, or his order, during his life, the sum of money equal to the pay, which private soldiers of the Maryland line, were entitled.

Read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

Ordered, That it be entered on the journal, that if Messrs. Seidenstricker, Hammond, Biser and Foard, had been present at the vote on Saturday the 18th instant, on Mr. Graves resolutions, relative to the Sub-treasury system, they would have voted in the affirmative, and that had Mr. Winder been present on that occasion, he would have voted in the negative.

Mr. Seidenstricker asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill entitled, an act relating to removed cases from Baltimore city court and Baltimore county court, to Anne Arundel county court;
